

Research Governance and Integrity Team
Imperial College London and
Imperial College Healthcare NHS Trust
The MediaWorks
191 Wood Lane, London, Greater London, W12 7FP
Tel: +44 (0)20 759 49456
rgit.ctimp.team@imperial.ac.uk
www.ic.ac.uk/clinicalresearchgovernanceoffice

Amendment Acknowledgment Letter

17/03/2026

Professor McAuley,
Wellcome-Wolfson Institute for Experimental Medicine
97 Lisburn Road, Belfast, BT9 7AE

Dear Prof McAuley,

Project Title: Precision medicine Adaptive Network platform Trial in Hypoxemic acutE respiratory failuRe (PANTHER)
Research Governance and Integrity Team Reference Number (RGIT):	23SM8523 / 172256
Amendment type:	Substantial Amendment
Amendment number:	SA01
Amendment date:	26.02.2026
IRAS Number:	1008743
EudraCT Number:	N/A
Does this amendment substantially change the safety or risk/benefit assessment in which the Trial risk assessment Has been updated?	No

Imperial College London, the sponsor of this trial, confirms that your amendment has been reviewed and meets the previously issued sponsorship requirements. We are satisfied with the classification of the amendment and authorise you to submit this amendment to the REC & HRA as applicable in amendment tool.

Please ensure participating sites are notified of amendment and that REC & HRA approvals are sent to participating sites R&D department as soon as possible.

You must NOT implement this amendment until you receive any required confirmation or acknowledgments from site R&D.

Yours sincerely
RGIT CTIMP Team